The words, hugs, cards, gifts, videos, memories and more are still swirling in our hearts and heads from Sunday, March 4 — the celebration of 25 years since we began our ministry at Corinth. We have been overwhelmed and humbled by your expressions of thanks. Please know how very much we love our church family and deeply appreciate the privilege we have had to serve here with you. To God be the glory, and may the name of Jesus Christ continue to be honored in this place for years to come.

In the bond of His love,

Pastor Bob and Linda Thompson
