Matthew 4:12-25 (NLT)

¹² When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he left Judea and returned to Galilee. ¹³ He went first to Nazareth, then left there and moved to Capernaum, beside the Sea of Galilee, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. ¹⁴ This fulfilled what God said through the prophet Isaiah: ¹⁵ “In the land of Zebulun and of Naphtali, beside the sea, beyond the Jordan River, in Galilee where so many Gentiles live, ¹⁶ the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light. And for those who lived in the land where death casts its shadow, a light has shined.” ¹⁷ From then on Jesus began to preach, “Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.” ¹⁸ One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. ¹⁹ Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!” ²⁰ And they left their nets at once and followed him. ²¹ A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them to come, too. ²² They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind. ²³ Jesus traveled throughout the region of Galilee, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness. ²⁴ News about him spread as far as Syria, and people soon began bringing to him all who were sick. And whatever their sickness or disease, or if they were demon possessed or epileptic or paralyzed—he healed them all. ²⁵ Large crowds followed him wherever he went—people from Galilee, the Ten Towns, Jerusalem, from all over Judea, and from east of the Jordan River.

Celebration of Communion

As we celebrate the Lord’s Supper, we invite all who profess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord to participate. We ask that children refrain from partaking in the sacrament of communion until they complete the First Communion class.

Friendly Reminder — Please continue to show love and respect toward others by wearing a mask indoors, maintaining social distance, and staying home if you have any symptoms of COVID-19, flu, or cold, or have recently been in close contact with others who are sick.

Coming Up at Corinth

Ways to Belong

Bible Read 2021. It's not too late to join us as we read through the Bible as a church family. We will provide a reading guide, tips and perspectives, and optional opportunities to interact as you read. Email Barb, barb@corinthtoday.org to receive devotional emails for encouragement and connection as we read through the entire Bible.

Quarantine Care. As Covid numbers increase, more people are having to quarantine due to testing and exposure. We want to help with the stress and isolation. If you know of an individual or family in quarantine, or would like to provide confidential prayer support to others, email Lydia Carlino, lydialudwig@hotmail.com.

Get Connected. We would love to help you find a small group, a Bible study or class, or a place to serve. January is the start of a new year and a new opportunity to connect at Corinth. Contact Patter Cross, patter@corinthtoday.org, for more information.

Ways to Serve

Healthcare Support. As Covid cases increase, healthcare workers are overwhelmed, stressed, and weary. We are working on ways to support our healthcare community and encourage them through this pandemic. If you are interested in helping or have ideas of how to help, email Patter, patter@corinthtoday.org.

Altar Flowers. Providing altar flowers in the sanctuary is a great way to honor a special event or loved ones. For more information or to reserve a date in 2021, contact the office, 828.328.6196 or barb@corinthtoday.org.

Stay Updated and Connected

We continue to make our best effort to keep you updated on ways to belong and serve at corinthtoday.org/now and Facebook.com/CorinthReformed.

For routine matters, call the church office at 828.328.6196, Mon-Thu 9-4; Fri 9-12.
