Covid Update

The Board of Elders and pastors spent significant time in prayer and discussion about Covid Tuesday, August 3. We all agree that we deeply love our diverse church family, we want to be together without restrictions as soon as possible, and we care about each person the Lord has called into this church family. We are very concerned about the capacities of our hospitals and healthcare workers.

For now, our appeal to you is to ponder not rights but love. Your pastors, who have all been vaccinated, will wear masks on Sundays except when speaking into a microphone. You may attend in person or watch online, wear or not wear a mask, socially distance or not. We simply ask you to pray and consider how your actions and words might affect the health and spirit of your brothers and sisters in Christ.

If Covid metrics continue to rise and/or the Governor of North Carolina issues an indoor mask mandate, the Elders and pastors will reconvene to discuss these issues further.
